CHECKS CROUP INSTANTLY.

You know croup is dangerous. And you ought to know too, the sense of security that comes from having Foley's Honey and Tar Compound in the house. It cuts the thick mucus and clears away the phlegm, stops the strangling cough and gives easy breathing and quiet sleep. Every user is a friend. C. C. Bingham.

PRESS COMMENT

Good Words For St. Johnsbury.

St. Johnsbury had a very happy Thanksgiving Day. The announcement, made just before that day, of "full time and over time" at the Fairbanks' Scale works brought good cheer to many and many a home in that pretty village. It was not all that St. Johnsbury had to be thankful for either. She now has one of the finest hotels in Vermont.
The new St. Johnsbury House, on the site of the old hotel, is one that any city or town in the state might well be proud. New buildings are going up now in St. Johnsbury and business looks good. People in this county will be interested to know that Palmer Bros' new industry is proving a success. They like St.
Johnsbury and St. Johnsbury evidently likes them by the fine business they are receiving.—Morrisville

Short Courses In Agriculture.

The 20th annual session of the winter short courses in agriculture will be held at the University of Vermont and State Agricultural College beginning Monday, Dec. 28, and closing Friday, Feb. 26. It is intended to cover the study of creamery operations in a broad way and to teach the essential principles and practices of soil management, dairy and other feeding, stock breeding and judging, vegetable gardening, orcharding, forest management, etc. They are open to men and women 18 years of age or older, who have had a common school education. Nine instructors will teach by lecture, text book study and recitation and by practical work. No charge is made for tuition to residents of Vermont. Incidental fees aggregating $10 are the only charge made. Text books cost about $5, working suits about $3.
The entire cost of the nine weeks' session need not exceed $65. Parties interested should write for information to Professor A. A. Borland, Morrill Hall, University of Vermont, Burlington, Vermont.

Powder, made
from pure cream
of tartar and soda,
is sold at the old prices.

The Methodist Church are preparing exercises for Christmas.
There will be a free supper and a Christmas tree for the Sunday school the same as last year.

Plans are under way for the Christmas exercises of the Congregational Sunday school.

The C. E. Society will hold a business meeting at the church tonight at 8 o'clock. A social hour will follow the meeting.

There will be a meeting of the Young Men's Club Thursday, Dec.
10, immediately following the church supper. The club plans to pack a box of men's clothing for the relief of the Belgians. All men are asked to bring warm, winter clothing to the church that night.

At the next regular grange meeting, Dec. 15, the following program will be given: Roll call, to be answered by Current Events; reading, mounted on end of quadrant.

Automobile experts have refused to believe that anyone could produce a full-grown five-passenger really beautifully equipped car—a car with real high-tension magneto—a car with sliding gear transmission—left-hand drive center control, a car with practically every high-priced car feature for less than $1,000.

Here it is! Here is a real automobile. Here is the easiest car to drive in the world—here is the greatest all-around hill climbing car in the world.
Here is an automobile to be really proud of.
